ment of section 176 of Act 62 of 1957.

40 of 1950.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under section 10 of the Army and Air Force (Disposal of Private Property) Act, 1950, movable property and money belonging to a person subject to the Army Act, 1950, or the Air Force Act, 1950, may be delivered or paid by the prescribed authority to the persons appearing to such authority to be entitled to such property and money, without requiring the production of any probate, letters of administration, succession certificate or other such conclusive evidence of title. This provision, however, applies only where the total amount or value of the property and money does not exceed five thousand rupees. In cases where the total amount or value exceeds five thousand rupees, the heirs of the deceased person are required to establish their title by production of evidence as mentioned above. In the case of persons subject to the Navy Act, 1957, section 176 of that Act makes provisions similar to those contained in section 10 of the Army and Air Force (Disposal of Private Property) Act, 1950.

- 2. Obtaining of a succession certificate or other evidence of title as aforesaid from a court of law involves expensive, troublesome and time-consuming procedure. The figures of the last few years indicate that a large number of cases where the amount or value of the property and money exceeded five thousand rupees could not be disposed of within a reasonable time mainly due to the requirement of production of succession certificate, etc., resulting in great hardship to the heirs of the persons belonging to the Army, Air Force or Navy. It is therefore, proposed to amend section 10 of the Army and Air Force (Disposal of Private Property) Act, 1950, and section 176 of the Navy Act, 1957, to raise the limit from five thousand rupees to ten thousand rupees
 - 3. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object-
